

FWPCOT2254 Maintain chainsaws

One Day Course

Introduction

New Territory Training is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO number 45776) registered with the Australian Skills Quality Authority.

New Territory Training is proud to offer training in the unit of competency FWPCOT2254 Maintain chainsaws as nationally recognised training.

Course Description

This course provides learners with the skills and knowledge required to safely maintain chainsaws.

Learners will understand how to conduct a pre-start check and learn about safety aspects required in maintaining a chainsaw safely. The training will include sufficient time to allow learners to practice their maintain chainsaws skills prior to their assessment.

This course is aimed for people in the construction, parks ranger, horticultural, agricultural, arboricultural and mining industries. This course is essential for people who are required to maintain a chainsaw as part of their duties within the workplace.

Mode of Delivery

Delivery of this course will be trainer led and delivered over one day of face-to-face training in a classroom setting combined with skills practice and assessment in your workplace.

Assessment Summary

The assessment in support of the unit of competency requires the learner to complete a written knowledge assessment and then demonstrate their applied knowledge and skills during a practical assessment maintaining a chainsaw observed by the assessor.

The learner must answer all the written knowledge questions correctly. There is the opportunity for this knowledge assessment to be conducted verbally if the learner requires this level of support.

The practical assessment is conducted under controlled conditions in your workplace. The learner will be briefed on the assessment which will involve carrying out pre-and post-start-up checks, methods of maintaining the chainsaw and recording chainsaw maintenance activities whilst monitoring workplace hazards and communicating with others in the workplace.

National recognition

On successfully completing the training and assessment you will be issued a Statement of Attainment issuing you the unit of competency: FWPCOT2254 Maintain chainsaws.

This unit of competence is nationally recognised and provides individuals with a valuable outcome that is recognised throughout Australia.
